Analytics

We collect information such as the pages you visit, the links you click on, the searches you perform, and the device and browser you are using. We may also collect information about your IP address and location.

We use this collected information for analytics purposes. It is to improve the user experience, and to identify and develop new features and products, to understand how visitors use our website, also to enhance and track trends and patterns.

We use a variety of analytics tools, including Google Analytics, to collect and analyse this information. We do not share your personal information with third-party analytics providers without your consent.

Payment Processing

To process payments for event tickets and services.

How We Share Your Information

We may share your personal information with third parties in the following circumstances:

Service Providers

We may share your information with third-party service providers who assist us in delivering our services, such as event registration companies, payment processors, marketing agencies, and IT providers. Such service providers are contractually bound to only process your information in accordance with our instructions and in line with this Privacy Policy.

Legal Compliance

We may disclose your information to comply with legal obligations or protect our rights, privacy, safety, or property.

Event Partners

If you attend an event organised in partnership with other organisations, we may share your information with those partners for event coordination purposes.

ADNEC Group Marketing

We may share your information with ADNEC Group's Marketing Department, so that they can send you updates, newsletters, and promotional materials regarding other ADNEC Group companies and services.

ADNEC Group Marketing will never share your information with any third parties but may occasionally send you marketing communications on behalf of third parties. You can opt out of ADNEC Group communications at any time.

Data Security

We take appropriate technical and organisational security measures to protect your personal information from unauthorized access, disclosure, destruction, accidental or intentional manipulation or loss. However, no data transmission over the internet or stored data can be guaranteed to be 100% secure.

Your Data Rights
